

Nepean Christian School is a growing, coeducational K-12 school of over 430 students that exists to glorify God by enjoying His Son, Jesus. It is a haven for educational adventure, the pursuit of personal and team excellence, authenticity in moving from faith to action and Christian character.

As part of restructuring the coordinator points, the school is seeking to appoint a committed Christian and senior teacher to the role of Teaching and Learning Coordinator.

As an ex-officio part of the Executive. The appointee would have an important role in the implementation of the mission and vision of the school as it relates to teaching practice and student learning. The appointee would have a K-12 role and work closely with the primary and secondary coordinators and Support coordinator. He/She would report directly to the principal.

Role Description:

- Advise school on current learning theories and strategies;
- Analyse data, including NAPLAN and RAP, to assist in the development of teaching and learning strategies;
- Engage with teacher training, teacher accreditation and professional development;
- Assist Primary and Secondary Coordinators with curriculum development and programme differentiation;
- Oversight of special learning structures e.g. Gifted and Talented.

Specific duties

- Work with Primary, Secondary and Support Coordinators to ensure high teaching quality;
- Develop an NCS gifted programme consistent with the pedagogical principles of the school;
- Assist the TAA with Teacher Accreditation processes including observations, reports and recommendations;
- Assist with the implementation of an online Learning Management System (LMS) into the teaching and learning practices of the school;
- Develop workshops for primary, secondary and whole school staff meetings as needed;
- Assist (Deputy Principal Programmes) with BOSTES requirements, subject selection, VET, post-school destinations etc.
- Attend Executive meetings;
- Attend school events that are identified as 'Executive events' e.g. School Tours, Subject Selection evenings, Year 7 evening etc.

Allocation

- 0.4 release time.

Remuneration

- Coordinator 3

All teachers at NCS are expected to:

Be what they believe

- a) Seek to bring every thought, feeling and action captive to the person of Jesus and His story as expressed in the Bible.
- b) Be committed to living Christ's story in the educational arena

Relate to students, colleagues and community members in a Christ-like manner

- a) Love and forgive others
- b) Care for the emotional, physical, social and spiritual well-being of people
- c) Promote the involvement of parents

Unfold the curriculum in the shadow of the Cross

- a) Promote a distinctively Gospel-Centred worldview
- b) Participate in curriculum development and professional development

Inspire students in the light of Jesus' Resurrection & Return

- a) Contextualise learning by interaction, simulation or engagement appropriate to the level of maturity
- b) Encourage students to realise that engaging with learning, accepting responsibility, self-fulfilment and service of others are the real rewards of any task

Structure procedures that support our Christian outlook

- a) Ensure that teaching and organisational procedures are in harmony with our Christian faith, or at least do not hinder it
- b) Formulate and maintain teaching programs that clearly declare Christ as Saviour and Lord

Enable students to respond as disciples of Christ in an exciting, yet broken world

- a) Prompt students to move from Christian knowledge, through action to commitment

Statement of Faith

We believe in:

- The Divine inspiration and infallibility of Holy Scripture as originally given and its sufficiency and supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.
- One God, eternal and indivisible, in whom are three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- The sovereignty of God, in creation, providence, revelation, redemption and final judgment
- The sinfulness and guilt of all men and women since the Fall, rendering them subject to God's wrath and condemnation.
- Redemption from the guilt, penalty and power of sin solely through the sacrificial death, as our representative and substitute, of the Lord
- Jesus Christ - the incarnate Son of God conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
- The justification of the sinner exclusively by the grace of God through faith in Christ alone.
- The bodily resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ from the dead and His ascension to the right hand of God the Father.
- The inability of humans, of their own volition, to choose Christ because of their sinful nature, thus the necessity of the work of the Holy
- Spirit to make the death of Christ effective to the individual sinner, granting them repentance towards God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.
- The indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the believer.
- The expectation of the personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- The one holy Universal Church of which Christ is the Head, to which all true believers belong and the local gathering of believers being the expression of membership of the Universal Church.

This statement of faith involves a commitment of life to Jesus Christ by persons believing it. Such a commitment should be demonstrated in quality of life and witness.
