

Oct. 14
2012

By Elysha Gibson

The Proposal-Book Review

The Proposal is a great book. I would read it again and again.

The Proposal is a historical novel set in Collingbourne, England, in 1810. It is about a man named Jennings who is lost. He stumbles along three children that have come into his care since their father and mother died. No matter how hard he tries he can't get parenting right so he goes to his sister, who he hasn't seen since she became a Christian, seeking help.

This story develops into a chase for a lovely lady named Marianne. He will never stop trying to get her to love him.

The author Lori Wick has shown great skill in presenting the emotions and characters throughout her book. You can feel the anger and confusion of Jennings and the sadness and loss of Thomas, James and Penny.

I would recommend this book to girls in year 6 to year 10 and onwards. It is a love story and adventure story all in one. I couldn't put it down and neither will you.

